

Cactus Wren

The cactus wren is the state bird of Arizona and eats primarily insects. It is a desert bird because it obtains almost all of the water it needs from its food. A cactus wren will rarely drink water even when it is plentiful.

DESERT CABALLEROS
WESTERN MUSEUM
EXPERIENCE THE OLD WEST, THE NEW WEST & THE NEXT WEST

Saguaro Cactus

The saguaro blossom is the Arizona State Flower. A full grown and fully hydrated saguaro can weigh over 4000 pounds!